Calling All Eligible Bachelors!

Gilda's Club Northern New Jersey is seeking twenty bachelors, between the ages of 25 and 70, to participate in its second annual Bachelor Auction. Back by popular demand, the event takes place on Thursday, October 14 at 7:00 pm at the Crowne Plaza in Englewood.

Bachelors will have the chance to be auctioned off and receive one of many "date" prizes, including Nets tickets, gift certificates to local restaurants and comedy clubs, Broadway shows, and much more.

"We are excited to once again host a fun-filled night for women of all ages to come out, take a chance and support our organization," said Ruth Dugan, Gilda's Club board president. The annual auction will benefit the not-for-profit cancer support organization in Hackensack.

Tickets are $50 and include dinner, one alcoholic beverage (21 and older), the chance to bid on bachelors and on gifts in a silent auction. To sign up, potential bachelors should contact Stephanie Buonarota at (201) 457-1670 ext. 123. For tickets, call (201) 457-1670.
